Many Times

Ron Sexsmith

Many times I've looked out on the rain
At the headlights down on me
And wondered then if you were lonely too
And thought how many times
I've looked up at the moon
The way some lovers do
Reminder there, I say a prayer for youFor there were things I meant to say
And things I never meant to do
It doesn't have to end this way
If our love is trueMany times I looked inside my heart
To find some missing part
My head full of the things I should have said
Should have said so many times
