

Can't Tell Me

Dubstar

I'd seen it all that afternoon
I'd seen it all, and your brother's too
You showed me round your mother's front room
    And dropped your pants
    Took off your shoes
You can't tell me now that you're laid
You can't sell me now that you're paid
You can't shelve me now that you're made
You can't tell me now that you're laid
You have a flair for taking off clothes
    You left me there and nobody knows how you came round four times that day and had your way, walked away
You can't tell me now that you're laid
You can't sell me now that you're laid
You can't tell me now that you're laid
You can't sell me now that you're paid
You can't shelve me now that you're made
    You can't tell me now that I'm laid
