Love's Lookin' Good on You

Lady Antebellum

Ooh, baby, baby
Somethings just a little bit different in your eyes tonight
They look twice as brightOoh, baby, baby
Somethings changed that I cant quite put my finger on Well, Ive been rackin my brain, wait just a minute
Hold on now, well I get itLove, love, loves lookin good, good, good on you
Well, can you feel it, oh, everybody sees it?
How your sweet smile has a way of lighting up a roomYeah, you shine like diamonds in everything you do
(You shine like diamonds do)
Oh love, love, loves lookin good, good, good on youOoh, baby, baby
Isnt it funny how we dont need any money
Just a little luck to look like a million bucksOoh, baby, baby
It kind of makes you think
That the stars were in sync on the night we met
There ought to be a red carpet everywhere you go
Roll it on out, hey, dont you know thatLove, love, loves lookin good, good, good on you
Well, can you feel it, oh, everybody sees it?
How your sweet smile has a way of lighting up a roomYeah, you shine like diamonds in everything you do
(You shine like diamonds do)
Oh love, love, loves lookin good, good, good on youI knew right away from the very first kiss
That it doesnt get much better than this
We fit just like a favorite pair of jeansWe just keep coming back for more
Like two kids in a candy store
Now I know what everybody means when they sayLove, love, loves lookin good, good, good on you
Can you feel it, oh, everybody sees it?
How your sweet smile has a way of lighting up a roomYeah, you shine like diamonds in everything you do
(You shine like diamonds do)
Oh love, love, loves lookin good, good, good on youWell, I'm telling you mighty, mighty good babe
Love, love, loves lookin good, good, good on you
Loves lookin good on you, oh
Love, love, loves lookin good, good, good on you
