

Soakin Wet

Willie Taylor

Your body babe, let my tongue explore

The way she opened her legs, I knew she wanted more

Biting her lips, the look in her eyes

I let the tingling of her thighs be my guideIt's like when she moans (moans moans) The More I know, (knows knows)

I'm hitting that spot (that spot) and I ain't letting go (no no)

She says damn (damn) I say I know (I know)

And I'm gon keep it in, until she let it goThis gon be the song that makes you soakin wet (soaking wet)

So drip drip drip yeah, drip drip drip yeah

This gon be the song that makes you soakin wet (soaking wet)

Everytime you hear it, you just want her near itThis gon be the song (aye aye aye aye)

This gon be the song (aye aye aye aye)

This gon be the song (aye aye aye aye)

This gon be the song (aye aye aye aye)This gon be the song that makes you soakin wet

Drip drip drip yeah, drip drip drip yeahI head to the shower for a cool down, she followed in for a second round

Back against the wall, her legs wrapped around

Body's soakin wet, I swear it's going downIt's like when she moans (moans moans) The More I know, (knows knows)

I'm hitting that spot (that spot) and I ain't letting go (no no)

She says damn (damn) I say I know (I know)

And I'm gon keep it, until she let it go

WhoohooooohThis gon be the song that makes you soakin wet (soaking wet)

So drip drip drip yeah, drip drip drip yeah

This gon be the song that makes you soakin wet (soaking wet)

Everytime you hear it, you just want her near itThis gon be the song (aye aye aye aye)

This gon be the song (aye aye aye aye)

This gon be the song (aye aye aye aye)
