Beware! The Modern Eye!

Laura

Beware! The modern eye!
The seeking leach that lies!
It shuffles in your porch,
It?s in your TV smoking cigarettes
Behind your mummy?s back at night?

Reveries are what I long for
Fantasies are what I live for
Where have I been all my life?

We live in an evil world
Where others ache and die;

Inhuman sacrifice
To feed the West and Western-eyesed
With bloody money
Falling from the sky!

Reveries are what I long for
Fantasies are what I live for
Where have I been all my life?

Reveries are gonna save us
Fantasies complete and change us
Where have I been all this time?

Beware! The modern eye!
The seeking leach that lies!
Beware! The modern lie!
Deceiving all it eyes!
Beware! The modern times!
Cause all they bring are lies!
Beware! The modern eye!

Reveries are what I long for
Fantasies are what I live for
Where have I been all my life?

Reveries are gonna save us

Reveries complete and change us
Where have I been all this time?
