No Mercy

Yngwie Malmsteen

You say you're always right and I'm wrong
You tell me I am weak and you are strong
Always tried so hard, now you've gone too far
I give all or nothing, no, to play my cardsYou pretend it's for fun
In the end when it's done
You might say it's a game
I will show no mercyYou talk so much but you don't have a clue
You lie so much you even think it's true
Now I'm in the lead, want to see you bleed
Say goodbye, I am forever in controlYou must learn, oh, so well
You shall burn in my hell
You might say it's a game
I will show no mercyAnd now it's said and done, it's all complete
You think you've won, you know you are defeated
Now it's all so clear, I'm your greatest fear
You have lived a lie, be prepared to dieYou pretend it's for fun
In the end when it's done
You might say it's a game
I will show noYou must learn, oh, so well
You shall burn in my hell
You might say it's a game
I will show noI will show no
I will show no mercy
