Before the Night Ends

Yanni

I close my eyes to see the world
I close my eyes so that it won't hurt
I'm sailing on blue ocean and flying to youI catch my breathe under the full moon
A star that shines, so pleased to meet you
Maybe I'll dream forever
And I'd like to love right hereBefore the night ends
And dawn of a new day dawns
How I hope, how I hopeThat out of this endless blue
Somehow I will find you
Before the night ends
Before the night endsI made a choice more than a few times
To walk a road that didn't end up so rightBut I want to go the distance
I'd like to love right hereBefore the night ends
And dawn of a new day dawns
How I hope, how I hopeThat out of this endless blue
Somehow I will find you
Before the night ends
Before the night endsClose my eyes
Never gonna let upBefore the night ends
I hope I find you
