Odd Man Out

Jools Holland; Tom Jones

I could be the guy with all the clever lines
Beneath my breath and standing just outside
You started pulling me in but next to him I'm falling further behind
You don't even know him but I see that three's a crowd
I am the odd man out
I don't wanna be but I'm just the best friend now
I am, I am the odd man out, I am the odd man out
I lost myself and let you slide away
Now there's someone else appearing in my place
Am I the last one to know or a year too slow?
All I wanted to say
You don't even know him but I see that three's a crowd
I am the odd man out
I don't wanna be but I feel it all crash down
I am, I am the odd man out, I am the odd man out
I want in, I've got something to say
I could still win this race, I'm not losing this game
'Cause it doesn't have to end up, doesn't have to end up that way
You don't even know me, you don't even know me
You don't really know me but you see that three's a crowd
I am the odd man out
Acted slowly guess I'm just the best friend now
I am the odd man out
Listen closely 'cause you can't be sorry
I admit I've been too proud
I don't wanna be but I feel it all crash down
I am, I am the odd man out, I am the odd man out
