Stain Yer Blood

Paul Westerberg

It ain't no big deal that
I feel you are layin' him
I see you leanin' against the floorIt ain't nobody's business
Who you see or who you kiss
I feel you breathin' in the hallIt's okay
Stained and not for fun
I won't stain your blood
I won't stain loveIt's okay
Stained and not for fun
I won't stain your blood
I won't stain loveGot an eye for an exit
And the ear that just begs to
I hear, does anybody here now think you're greatForever, they ignore us
Not the guys that only bores us
Together we're gonna love everything that they hateIt's okay
Stained and not for fun
I won't stain your blood
I won't stain loveIt's okay
Stained and not for fun
I won't stain your blood
I won't stain loveI don't care if she's right
Cross my heart, hope to die
Is it love?They're gonna talk about us
They're gonna stare when we walk by
They're gonna talk about us
For the first time in our livesIt's okay
Stained and not for fun
I won't stain your blood
I won't stain loveIt's okay
Stained and not for fun
I won't stain your blood
I won't stain loveIs it love? Is it love?
Yeah
