Somewhere In the Rain

The Generators

Here I am,
Off in the distance
But I'm still calling your name
Not a day passes
That I'm not asking
why some things
turn out in the worst of waysAshes to ashes and dust to dust
The storm move on in and it swept away
With usCan you hear the falling rain?
Its coming down today
Have you seen the falling rain
Have you see what we've became
And we're still missing out there
Somewhere in the rain
Somewhere in the rainI heard its dark right before the dawn
I heard from someone there's A calm in every storm
Something broke on in and pushed us
On out of the light
2 children sent into
Dark corners of the light
