

In the Dream

Craig Morgan

Eight years old wearing his daddys hard hat
He grabbed the water hose
Said he saw the fireman do it like that
His wagon was his ladder truck
He pulled it around and at the top of his lungs
Hed make a fire engine sound
In the dream he is more than just a hero
More than anything he ever wanted to be
In the dream theres a world that lasts forever
And life is so much better than it seems
Close your eyes, you can be anything in the dream
Fumbling through the attic
She found her mothers old wedding dress
She said someday shed wear it
And wouldnt mama be impressed
She can just about imagine what everyone would say
When her knight in shining armor comes to carry her away
In the dream shes as pretty as a picture
More than anything she ever wanted to be
In the dream theres a world that lasts forever
And life is so much better than it seems
Close your eyes, you can be anything in the dream
On the one side of the isle, sits all her family
On the other side are all his friends from Engine 53
When she looks at him I wonder if he knows
To her hes still the boy she met 20 years ago
In the dream hes more than just a hero
She's pretty as a picture like they wanted to be
In the dream theres a world that lasts forever
And life is so much better than it seems
Close your eyes, you can be anything
Close your eyes, you can be anything in the dream
