

My Worst Nightmare

Fine China

I should've known better not to wait around
Why did I come home 'cause I hate here
I should've known better not to wait around
I'm getting rid of my phone and I made it clear
I should've known better not to wait around
I never did, never did I ever love any one other than you
But secretly I always wanna see you cry
So I push you until you do
Check it out
I should've never came, I should've never Should've never came to you insisted for me to
'Cause you lie and didn't mean to take it back
You thought I'd make it work, never did but I meant to, I, I, I give up
I never did what you said that I did when I was gone for so long
I never said what you did was either right or wrong
It's wrong, you dreamt of him
If you trust me, adjust me baby
Find the words that define these feelings
Roll your eyes when you look at me
Hard to talk when you're staring at the ceiling
Pursue, pursue baby

Everything we've been through lately
Be there when you close your eyes
Hold you tight, say goodnight
I never did what you said that I did when I was gone for so long
I never said what you did was either right or wrong
It's wrong, you dreamt of him
I never did what you said that I did when I was gone for so long
I never said what you did was either right or wrong
It's wrong, you dreamt of him
I, I needed, I, I, I needed someone to talk to
And you, you needed, you, you, you needed me to hold you
I, I needed, I, I, I needed someone to talk to
And you, you needed, you, you, you needed me to hold you
I never did what you said that I did when I was gone for so long
I never said what you did was either right or wrong
It's wrong, you dreamt of him
I never did what you said that I did when I was gone for so long

I never said what you did was either right or wrong
It's wrong, you dreamt of him
