

Woke up Today

Jacob Collier

Woke up today my mind a whirl from head to toe with endless feeling
Try to explain just what I see you say to me I must be dreaming
You called my name the I wished you would in my imagination
Now every single thing around me feeling me with this sensation In my searching around I've seen so many faces
Now I found the one I needed and the sun is rising I woke up today like a wanted
Since you walked my way I found my strength to feel it
I woke up today, Heaven knows it
I woke up today about the things in my life I didn't think I needed
They flew outside my window pane now they just have to be kept a secret
These walls are built for no exceptions to the things I've treasured daily
And now the dust has cleared away but baby I see that you don't need me In this crazy old world I've been so many places
See now I'm gunna need some shelter when the sun is sinking I woke up today like I wanted
Since you walked my way I found my strength to feel it
I woke up today, Heaven knows it
I woke up today like I wanted
Since you walked my way I found my - found my strength to feel it
I woke up today like I wanted
Since you walked my way I found my - found my strength to feel it
I woke up today like I wanted
Since you walked my way I found my - found my strength to feel it (I woke up today like I wanted Found my strength to feel it)
