

No Deal

Melanie De Biasio

Tears are rivers across this valley of gold
My roots wither and mourn for you
From light years away
The wailing tree moans
It's time to let it go
As an illwind sweeps across my dayOh my lord
Help my please
Is that fair and far enough for you
I suffer along the way
Many good ways for me to grow
Yes an illwind sweeps across my dayIllwind
Sweeping across my day
No deal with love
No deal with the rest
