

That Girl's a Freak

Big Engine

She had a pretty face on MySpace
So I thought I'd check her out
I had a look at her Facebook
And she's looking good no doubt
Said anytime, anyplace
I sent her a message and we made a date
I picked her up at her house
She got in the car and she freaked me out
That Girl, That Girl's A Freak
Yeah, Yeah, Yeah
That Girl, That Girl's A Freak
And now she's freaking me out
She gave me way too much information
About her checkered past
And when we reached our destination
There was just no turning back
She got crazy, She got loud
Every guy that walked by looked back her & smiled
She got crazy, She got loud
It seemed like she'd been with every guy in the crowd
She texts me a hundred times a day
She calls me up and has nothing to say
She's got no conscience. She's got no shame
She's pulling me in but I can't break away
