Pushing

Dj Crist

And although you're pushing me aside
Yes I saw the criminal inside you
I don't know how can I decideSome years gone
Could be 'cause nobody had time
I have some reasons to divide
Just have this on your mindAnd though tonight you're pushing me aside
I go and don't want to be reminded at all
And though tonight you want me on your side
I go and don't want to be in your mind at allAnd although I'm crashing down the stairs
My arms grow want to catch but air
My first thought how does look my hair
Some years gone
Could be 'cause nobody had time
I have some reasons to divide
Just have this on your mindAnd though tonight you're pushing me aside
I go and dont want to be reminded at all
And though tonight you want me on your side
I go and don't want to be in your mind at all
