

WHA DEM SAY

Winston McAnuff & Fixi

Wha dem say
Nothin no go so
Half the story has never been told
Wha dem say
Nothin no go so
Life is worth much more than gold On the great redemption morning
When all the saints are rising
See the wicked crying for his soul
This man and that man shall say they are the right man
The righteous man will establish himself
Wha dem say
Nothin no go so
Half the story has never been told
Wha dem say
Nothin no go so
Life is worth much more than gold
On the great redemption morning
When all the saints are rising
See the wicked crying for his soul
This man and that man shall say they are the right man
The righteous man will establish himself
