It Starts Now

BLOND:ISH

Well anyway
this is therefore to say transformation of human consciousness through meditation is frustratedSo long as we think of it in terms of something that I, myself, can bring about by some kind of wangle, by some sort of gimmickbecouse, you see, that leads to endless games of spiritual one-upmanship and of guru competitions of my guru is more effective than your guru my yogas are faster than your yogas I am more aware of myself than you are I'm humbler than you are I am sorrier for my sins than you are I love you more than you love me And these interminable goings on about about wich people fight and wonder wether they're a little bit more evolved than somebody else, and so on All that can just fall awayAnd thenwe get this strange feeling that we have never had previously in our lifes except occasionally by accident some people get a glimpseThat we are no longer this poor little stranger and afraid in a world it never madeBut that you ARE this universe And you are creating it, at every moment Becouse, you see, it starts now It didn't begin in the past There was no past
If the universe began in the past when that happened it was now, see?
But it's still now, and the universe is still begginning now on it's trailing off, like the wake of a ship from now and as the wake of the ship fades out so does the past.You can look back there to explain things but the explanation disappears You'll never find it there, things are not explained by the past They're explained by what happens nowCheer up You can't blame anyone else for the kind of world you're in

And if you know you see that I, in the sense of the person the front, the ego it doesn't really exist Then it won't go through your head too badly if you wake up and discover that you are God.That's the birth of responsability becouse otherwise you can aways look over your shoulder and say well, I am the way I am becouse my mother dropped me And she dropped becouse she was neurotic, becouse her mother dropped her, and way you go, back to Adam and Eve or to disappearing monkey or something.
We never get at it
