

Mind Meld

Sebadoh

Leaving is a test that I've never had to take
When your mind dissolves, you don't know me anymore
Try to make you see what you meant to me before
When you told me off, the other door
The house won't be close without you to see
Leaving is a test that I've never had to take (repeat verse)
Here's my last thought, but it's sad for me to say (?)
