

Play Those Oldies Mr. D.J.

Anthony & the Sophomores

When those oldies play we listen
(Din din din din bum bum ba bum bum)
Makes us start a-reminiscin' (tra la la la la bomb bomb a bomb bomb)
When we hear those oldies spinning
(Bomp bomp a bomp a bomp bomp a bomp bomp whoop whoop ooh ma ma)

It always makes us start reminiscing
(Bomp bomp a bomp a bomp bomp bomp bomp whoop whoop ooh ma ma)
It reminds us of those good times
Just a couple, couple, couple, couple years ago
So Mr. DeeJay (yes), play those oldies, (all right)
Those oldies we all love so.

(Remember) (aah-aah) You don't remember me
Earth Angel, where can she be
Tonight - (Sho do sho bee in the still of the night)
Yes those old songs that we're singing
Brings back melodies of long ago
So Mister DeeJay (yes), keep on playing (all right)
Those oldies we all love so.

Those oldies we're singing of long ago
Are the songs I grew and I love so
That's why when we hear from the Hall of Fame
We know each and every song by name

When those oldies play we listen
(Din din din din bum bum ba bum bum)
Makes us start a-reminiscin' (tra la la la la bomb bomb a bom bom)

Mister DeeJay, play those oldies
Oh, a couple, couple, couple, couple of years ago
Oh Mister DeeJay (yes), keep on playing (all right)
Those oldies we all love so (oh baby)
Those oldies we all love so (oh baby)
Those oldies we all love so.
