Love And Pain

Blitzmaschine

Leave it to me
To lose all your confidence
No, I can't stop
This train wreck before it hits
I hope I don't sound
Like the X's on your calendar
I stumble on new ground
To gather up the formula
Fate, faith
You and me, love and pain
Fate, faith
You and me, love and pain
How selfish of me
To think I'm the only one
To question mistakes
A fool's game, I'm losing now
Just taking my time
Planning out my escape
I'm scared what I'll find
But it's the choice I have to make
Fate, faith
You and me, love and pain
Fate, faith
You and me, love and pain

Even I know there's a line
Between emotion and
Fate, faith
You and me, love and pain
We can't control what we are
It's not our place
It's out of our hands
Fate, faith
You and me, love and pain
Fate, faith
You and me, love and pain
Even I know there's a line
Between emotion and
Fate, faith

You and me, love and pain
Fate, faith
You and me, love and pain
Fate, faith
You and me, love
Even I know there's a line
Between emotion and
Fate, faith
You and me, love and pain
