

Shut Your Face

Bratmobile

You know it's just a piece of ass
When girls are dying
It's all hype and selling news
While boys are lying
Close your mouth and shut your face
To keep from crying
Ask if it's a girl thing
Yeah, cause girls are dying Yeah, another girl's gone missing
Sure don't know what you're missing
Bury some liberal in the ground
You never cared if she was found How many deaths does it take to make you Feel something too?
Girls are dying while men are lying
It's nothing to you
You don't wanna hear about it
Just something to do
Run your mouth all over town
Well, we don't need you Say she's getting too much press
This time you have the wrong address
Even if her pockets lie
Don't mean she deserved to die I can't believe it's true
That dead girls are old news
When bombs are falling
And you've been calling
Us girls have a right to know
Us girls have a right to care
When women die anywhere
Anywhere You know it's just a piece of ass
When girls are dying
It's all hype and selling news
While boys are lying
Close your mouth and shut your face
To keep from crying
Ask if it's a girl thing
Yeah, cause girls are dying Yeah, another girl's gone missing
Sure don't know what you're missing
Bury some liberal in the ground
You never cared if she was found
