

Headwires

Foo Fighters

Have you been headwired?
Were you satisfied?
Did it free the feelings in your spine?
Sleeping way inside all this time Will your meet your mind
Where the night collides?
Will you greet yourself
When the sun arrives? I'll just stay behind
I've met mine Better than a bullet being fired
Tangled in your headwires now Help you feed the wires
When your head unwinds?
And if our headlines become entwined
You can have all mine
I'll be fine There's a reason why
Keeping me alive
There's a cure in me
That I wish were mine
As long as I can fight, I'll survive Better than a bullet being fired
Tangled in your headwires now
Better than a bullet being fired
Tangled in your headwires now Stationed on the wire
One day I'll let go
Tell them all 'Hello'
Tell them all 'Hello' The sun is on
Arlandria Headwires
