

In My Head

DJ Luca Arcangeli

I'm reaching out without a sound
My pride falls to the floor again
Inside my mind I search to find
    A place just to call my own
    Deep inside Your eyes
    I am blinded by Your love
Still I run so far just to find that
    I'm alone again
    In my head, I hear You calling me
And I can't run 'cause there's nothing left for me
    When I fall You always follow me deep inside
    Deep inside, deep inside of my head

I just can't last as these feelings pass
    Once again I hide the pain inside
The smile wears thin and the lies begin
    To bring me down again
When I run I run so far away from You
I hide the pain and all the lies deep inside again
    And all my faith I put in You
    This time You take it all away
    Inside my head
    Deep inside
    My head
