Sweeter Love

BRYAN ART

I do not believe in fairy tales
I have bit off all my fingernails
I will never wash these sheets again
You know the ones you left me inThere's no sweeter love
There's no sweeter love
There's no sweeter love than mine
There's no sweeter loveSo what are you thinking of?
There's no sweeter love than mine
And if you disagree
Set me freeI did not believe in self-defense
'Til you crushed me like an ornament
When you hung me from your kissing tree
You flaunted me and you fucked with meThere's no sweeter love
There's no sweeter love
There's no sweeter love than mine
There's no sweeter loveSo what are you thinking of?
There's no sweeter love than mine
And if you disagree
Set me freeAnd if you disagree
Set me free
Set me free
