I Rep That West

Ice Cube

You know what West Coast niggas is gon' tell me?
This is too West Coast
Doin' my own thing
And if you got a problem with that
Then the Nina go bang, bang
And I'll be everywhere on the map
But I rep that
West
I rep that
West
I rep that
West
I rep that
West
I rep that
West
I rep that
West
I rep that
West
I rep that
West
Don't you know that I rep that
Why you got to let that boy in the buildin'?
Don't you know that he about to kill 'em?
Don't you know that he about to hurt y'all feelings?
Can't find Ren, might as well play the villain
I'mma get him
Why, 'cause I can't baby sit him
I'mma whip him, treat him like bad ass children
Is it evil, y'all better call them people
How I get down, just ain't legal
Money long, sorta like Louis Vuitton
I run this shit right here, call me Marathon
(Boom)
I blow like a cherry bomb
You a small donation, bitch, I'm a telethon
West Coast million, what is he really on?
Is it that shit that niggas go silly on?

Hell, no, the pyroclastic flow is evident
(West Side)
And y'all know what I represent
Doin' my own thing
And if you got a problem with that
Then the Nina go bang, bang
And I be everywhere on the map
But I rep that
West
I rep that
West
I rep that
West
I rep that
West
I rep that
West
I rep that
West
I rep that
West
I rep that
West
I rep that
West
I rep that
Y'all know what it is
Is this too West Coast for you motherfuckers?
So what?
