

Take Me Back

Ataris

I am blue, the sky is grey,
I guess it's better off that way.
There's really not much left to say.

I called you on the phone,
Another guy said that you weren't at
Home,

But, I don't care I'll call you again
Anyway.

Baby I'd give you the world...
Please forget about those fifteen other
Girls.

I don't care what they say...
I didn't mean to stand you up on our Wedding day.

I'm sorry that I gave you that infection,
And said we had sex on the love
Connection.

Can I ever make it up to you?
I'm sorry that I made you mad,
The things I did just didn't seem that Bad...

Except for maybe when I blew up your Car.

Oh baby what can I do? ? ?
Every girl I'm with makes me think of
You.

I call your name in my sleep.
Too bad you think that I'm a creep.
Please take me back... (x5)
