

Empty Room

Chaos Emeralds

Hey, little dove
You want to run
Out in the field
You want it now
Fearful of love
You want to lie
Under the one
Kept you untied

You are
The well-worn lines
Of a fleeting heart
You are
A woman now
A woman now

I donâ€™t want to live in doubt
In an empty room
Never hold another down
In an empty room
Hey, little dove
I need another/your loving
Rise and again
Fall

I want to love
No, I canâ€™t
Caught setting course
Naked I came
No woman alive
Captive and all
She an accomplice
All that I know

You are
The well-worn lines
Of a fleeting heart
I know
The loneliness

The loneliness

I donâ€™t want to live in doubt

In an empty room

Never drew another card

In an empty room

Hey, little dove

I need another/your loving

Rise and again

Fall
