Egotistical

This Rigid Empire

So
If you want
You can try to work it out
But you'll never be like
No you'll never be like me

And if you want
You can try to fight the clique
But you'll never be like
No you'll never be like me

And if you are losin'
You know I?m accusin'
You know I?m accusin'
So take me down

And if you are dreamin'
You know that I'm screamin'
You know that I'm screamin'
Your name out...

LOUD!

And
If you want
You can buy yourself a drink
But you'll never drink like
No you'll never drink like me

And if you want
You can try to count to three
But you won't impress me
No you'll never impress me

I wouldn't have let go but I no longer care
I tried to fight it I did I swear
All those things that you said were they real?
And i want you to know this is how we're gonna deal

We could've made it but the click wasn't there

You should've backed down this is something we don't share
All those things that you did were they real?
And I want you to know how bad it's gonna feel

(No you'll never be like me)

So
If you want
You can hide yourself forever
But you'll never be like
No you'll never be like me

And if you want
You can keep on getting better
But you'll never be like
No you'll never be like me
