Bright Beginnings

Joe Pug

I don't know but I could swear
We left our better selves somewhere
These days all we do it seems
Chase our checks and call them dreamsI've known you since we were kids
With the whole world cut up on a dish
Then the work went south and your dad got sick
And the ground below began to sinkBright beginnings often fade
Precious few can keep the flameSo let the chips fall where they may
We're headed out of town today
Where we're bound for I can't say
Cause there's no sure things in this live playBright beginnings often fade
Precious few can keep the flame
All I have I give to stand
Beside that brightness once againAnd all I have I would have happily give
All I have I would happily give
All I Have I would happily give
All I have I would happily giveBaby to stand there with you now
To stand there with you ever
To stand there with you now
To stand there with you ever
To stand there with you now
To stand there with you ever
To stand there with you now
To stand there with you ever
