Sirens

Pearl Jam

Hear the sirens, hear the siren
Hear the siren, hear the circus all go found
I hear the sirens more and more in this here town
Let me catch my breath to breathe then reach across the bendJust to know we're safe, I am a grateful man
This light is pit, alive and I can see you clear
I could take your hand, and feel your breath
For feel that someday this will be over
I pull you close, so much to loseKnowing that, nothing lasts forever
I didn't care, before you were here
A distant laughter, with the everafter
But, all things change, let this remainHear the sirens covering distance in the night
The sound, echoing closer, will they come for me, next time?For every choice, mistake I made, is not my plan
To see you in the arms of another man
And if you choose to stay, I'll wait, I'll understandOh, it's a fragile thing, this life we lead, if I think too much, I can't get over
When by the graces, by which we live our lives with death over our shoulders
Want you to know, that should I go, I always loved you, held you high above too
I studied your face, the fear goes away.Guitar soloIt's a fragile thing, this life we lead, if I think too much, I can't get over
When by the graves, by which we live our lives with death over our shoulders
Want you to know, that should I go, I always loved you, held you high above too
I studied your face, the fear goes away, the fear goes away, the fear goes away.
