

Keep It Beating

Curt Anderson

I'm shipwrecked on the rocks of my mistakes
Turned away from the light I knew would guide me
I don't deserve another chance to fall
I see the path of the heartache that's behind me When I'm surrounded by defeat
I need your hope to rescue me You keep reaching down
Your love keeps pouring out
You pull me back to life
And keep me breathing
When I'm lost in the storm
You pull me into your arms
You take my broken heart
And keep it beating You take, you take my broken
You take, you take my broken
You take, you take my broken heart and keep it beating I know you're with me when I falter
When I'm afraid to step out on the water
You take my hand and you lead the way
To find faith in you is all that matters When I'm surrounded by defeat
I need your hope to rescue me You keep reaching down
Your love keeps pouring out
You pull me back to life
And keep me breathing
When I'm lost in the storm
You pull me into your arms
You take my broken heart
And keep it beating You take, you take my broken
You take, you take my broken
You take, you take my broken heart and keep it beating You're never gonna let me go
Even when I fall so far
Your love. sees through
My shattered parts
Forgiven every last mistake
With every broken piece you take
You make new life You keep reaching down
Your love keeps pouring out
You pull me back to life
And keep me breathing
When I'm lost in the storm
You pull me into your arms
You take my broken heart

And keep it beating You take, you take my broken heart
You take, you take my broken heart and keep it beating I'm shipwrecked on the rocks of my mistakes
Now I see the light I know will guide me
