

Fragile Tension (Peter Bjorn & John Remix)

Depeche Mode

There's a fragile tension
That's keeping us going
It may not last forever
But always is flowingIt's something magical in the air
Something so tragic we have to careThere's a strange obsession
It's drawing us nearer
We don't understand it
It never gets clearerIt's something mystical in our dreams
It's so simplistic it kicks and screamsOh well, we'll seem to reek
On the edge of collapse
Nothing can keep us downThere's a dizzying feeling
That's keeping us flying
Through glittering gauntlet
Without even tryingIt's something radical in our hands
But nothing logical to our plans
