I Knew You When

Late Night Alumni

Hello, tell me, how have you been?
I didn't think I'd see your face again.And it shows all the years that have passed.
Memories fade, emotion seems to last.Look how the spark never leaves,
It's we who choose the dark.
And look how the fire only cools,
It's we who lose desire.Hello, I knew you when.
How nice it is to see your smile again.
