The Star

Kikki Danielsson

My head in the clouds, I can't conceal, conceit
I try to justify your looked, bewitched eye
Am I shining brightly on falsified sky?And I try so hard to be like you
And I'm just a star, and I'll fade away too
Like youYou'll see me as I am but I'm empty inside
We'll suck each other in the blackhole that
Is lifeI can be a fallen star, not fallen from grace
One plane, one world, one sky, so me don't alientateAnd I try so hard to be like you
And I'm just a star, and I'll fade away too
Like youBlind, you will see
Star, that is me
