

Memory

Brokenrail

I
watch you cry
reaching for me to say we're alright tonight
will be your test
as we lay to rest
these forsaken feelings

WHAT!? I can't hear you!
WHAT!? Say it again

'Cause I tried to help when you needed it you had to go and ruin it
I don't want to live this lie
you did everything yourself this time
you felt that you could control me
I don't think that you ever really knew me
I see you speak but don't hear a thing
Now that you're gone, you're noting but a memory

You had your chance to do what's best and make this right, but I
I saw right through this evil that's you well, I know your type

WHAT!? I can't hear you!

you did everything yourself this time
I don't think that you ever really knew me

Now that you're gone, you're nothing but a memory

(guitar riff)

you're right
we watch
as the story
fades
away

'Cause I tried to help when you needed it
you did everything yourself this time
Now that you're gone you're nothing but a MEMORY!!!!
