

Tonight I'm Gonna Make You a Star

B.B. King

Tonight Im gonna make you a star
Im gonna play you like my new guitar
Ill put some polish on your strings
Ill make you sing like an angel sings
Lay back and love it baby, stand up and shout
Cuz tonight youll see, what bein a stars all about One touch you tremble, one more youll moan
Ill show you something youve never learned at home
Youll see how good baby, it all can be Ill show you everything you need to see
Ive got my feeling mama, youll go far
Cuz tonight I'm gonna make you, make you my star Im gonna rock you a little while
And then well roll in a down home style
If it get's funky we wont mind
Were gonna reach for whatever we can find
Youre gonna play all my favorite songs
Ill show you right now where the beat belongs Come step aboard my midnight flight
Were gonna ride babe, till the mornin light
And when the tour is at the end
Well go back over everywhere weve been
Now, you got the message baby, now answer the call
Step into the spotlight and give it your all
