

Wallpaper For The Soul (Sean O'Hagan Remix)

Tahiti 80

Wallpaper for the soul
To keep away from the black hole
In my heart there's plenty of room
For everyone to kill the gloom
Don't worry too much about what to say
The words would have come anyway Follow me
To the house of the free Wallpaper for the soul
Like the one stole
A long time ago Wallpaper for the soul
Seeing life through the keyhole
And you don't want to go A piece of sunshine a piece a of gold
Like a secret never told A piece of sunshine a piece of gold
Wallpaper for the soul In your heart ther's plenty of room
For everyone to kill the gloom Wallpaper for the soul
