Advisory - the following lyrics contain explicit language:

Rise up with fervid zeal, salvation's at hand
Forged in flames as stars collide
Recite the sacred rites, evoke the astral beast
Black magic, astrologyIn sacred flames it congregates
The ancient rage and priest fusing the fetus and beast
The Satian redeemer, man's blood must infect
The weapon, the grand architectBehold the wicked, the child is born
Coalesced of the celestial beast
Divine equation, the prophecy
Rejoice in the birth, born is heDisciples and minions spread the word, born is he Thrust hell upon humanity
Baptize the wicked child, the math upon his crown
On this date we consecrateBehold the wicked, the child is born
Coalesced of the celestial beast
Divine equation, the prophecy
Rejoice in the birth, born is heBehold the wicked, the child is born
Coalesced of the celestial beast
Divine equation, the prophecy
Rejoice in the birth, born is heEmbrace the power of this sixth hour
On the sixth day of the sixth month
Behold the child, our path to light
We'll guide him with undying love
