

Hard

Jagged Edge

Every single night
That I be without you girl it's just so hard
Trying to fight myself
'Cause I know that I was too hard
I still should've been lovin' you
I should've been lovin' you, ohGirl, I ain't the same
But I gotta get back my name
I don't put in all my change
Have enough money to get on this plane
And come in get my love
I ain't leavin' till I get my love
Can you resist my heart and my soulI'm sayin' sorry now
But I know that ain't gon' cut it
So I'm changing now
Yes I amEvery single night
That I be without you girl it's just so hard
Trying to fight myself
'Cause I know that I was too hard
I still should've been lovin' you
I should've been lovin' youEvery single night
That I be without you girl it's just so hard
Trying to fight myself
'Cause I know that I was too hard
I still should've been lovin' you
I should've been lovin' youAin't nobody ever loved me like you
I just figured it out
Maybe it's too late for me and you
I just can't picture that
It's not too late, not too late for us
Sometimes I feel like
Me and you's a mustI'm sayin' sorry now
And I know that ain't gon' cut it
So I'm changing now
Yes I amEvery single night
That I be without you girl it's just so hard
Trying to fight myself
'Cause I know that I was too hard
I still should've been lovin' you
I should've been lovin' youEvery single night

That I be without you girl it's just so hard
Trying to fight myself
'Cause I know that I was too hard
I still should've been lovin' you
I should've been lovin' you I should've been lovin', I should've been lovin' you
I should've been lovin', I should've been lovin' you, should've been Should've been lovin', I should've been lovin' you
Should've been lovin', I should've been lovin' you (Said I )
Should've been lovin' lovin' you
Should've been lovin'
(Said I in the mornin')
Should've been lovin' lovin' you
Should've been lovin'
(Evening, evening oh)
Should've been lovin' lovin' you
Should've been lovin'
(Whole day)
Should've been lovin' lovin' you
Should've been lovin'
(Said I )(So hard, I should've been lovin')
Should've been lovin' you
(You so very hard I should've been lovin)
Should've been lovin' you
(You so very hard I lovin)
(Very hard I lovin')
So hard
Should've been lovin' you hard
Should've been lovin' lovin' you
