

Something of an End

My Brightest Diamond

Advisory - the following lyrics contain explicit language:

When you came jumping down the stairs
Screaming bloody awful
You woke up God and everyone
Screaming bloody awful So we took you to the doctor
He said yeah it's a bad one
And there's such a shame about it
'Cause she's so pretty And then the earth started shaking
And yeah it was crazy
Heaven and hell came crashing down
And then the earth started shaking
Yeah it was crazy
Heaven and hell came crashing
They came crashing It was beautiful and terrible
So beautiful and terrible The phone call
You never expect
That somebody get it yet
It's a sound you never forget Because the earth starts shaking
And yeah it's crazy
Heaven and hell come crashing down
And then the earth starts shaking
Yeah it's so crazy
Heaven and hell come crashing
They come crashing
They come cr-cr-crashing It's so beautiful and terrible
So beautiful and terrible It was something of an end
Of a lovely and a wild thing
So beautiful in the morning
You're beautiful
So beautiful
You're beautiful in the morning And I can't seem to get it through your head
No matter what I do
I can't seem to get it through your head

That I always love you
