

Point of No Return

Georgie Fame & The Blue Flames

You know that once upon a time
I didn't need you so
Would have been so easy then
For me to turn and go
But now there's no leaving you
I know that for a fact
I'm at the point of no return
And for me there'll be no turning back I told myself you'd always be
A habit and a break
But now a day without your kiss
Would be so hard to take
You just can't get off a train
That's moving down the track
I'm at the point of no return
And for me there'll be no turning back
Once I could have said goodbye
But that was at the start
Now I think I'd rather die
Than be the one to say we'll part
Maybe you'll break my heart
Maybe you'll be true
No matter what the future brings
I've got to see it through
Maybe your love for me is nothing but an act
I'm at the point of no return
And for me there'll be no turning back
Maybe you'll break my heart
Maybe you'll be true
No matter what the future brings
I've got to see it through
Maybe your love for me is nothing but an act
I'm at the we were too young to know
Honey now you say we don't love each other
And my weekend's about to blow
I'm at the point of no return
And for me there'll be no turning back
