

The Lee Shore

Crosby, Stills, Nash & Young

The Lee Shore

By David Crosby

From the Crosby, Stills, Nash & Young album "4 Way Street" Wheel gull spin and glide ... you've got no place to hide

'Cause you don't need one All along the Lee shore

Shells lie scattered in the sand

Winking up like shining eyes, at me

From the sea Here is one like sunrise

It's older than you know

It's still lying there where some careless wave

Forgot it long ago When I awoke this morning

I dove beneath my floating home

Down below her graceful side in the turning tide

To watch the sea fish roam There I heard this story

From the sailors of the Sandra Marie

There's another island a day's run away from here

And it's empty and free From here to Venezuela

There's nothing more to see

Than a hundred thousand islands

Flung like some jewels upon the sea

For you and me Sunset smells of dinner

Women are calling at me to end my tales

But perhaps I'll see you, the next quiet place

I furl my sails
