

Desensitized

Jonah33

Subliminal images crawl upon my screen
Taking what is meant for good
And making it obscene
I'm growing numb
But what is wrong and what is right
When did I start to lose this fight?
Somehow I lost track of who you are
I'm so amazed at what sin's become
I'm so ashamed that I've grown so numb
Somehow I became desensitized
I don't want to be desensitized
Justify the reasons why
I stare through my calloused eyes
I'm hollowed out, spiraled down
Slave to my own demise
I'm growing numb

But what is wrong and what is right
When did I start to lose this fight?
Somehow I lost track of who you are
I'm so amazed at what sin's become
I'm so ashamed that I've grown so numb
Somehow I became desensitized
I don't want to be desensitized
So what is wrong and what is right
When did I start to lose this fight?
Somehow I lost track of who you are
I'm so amazed at what sin's become
I'm so ashamed that I've grown so numb
Somehow I became desensitized
I don't want to be desensitized
I don't want to be desensitized
