Desensitized

Jonah33

Subliminal images crawl upon my screen Taking what is meant for good And making it obscene I?m growing numb But what is wrong and what is right When did I start to lose this fight? Somehow I lost track of who you are I?m so amazed at what sin?s become I?m so ashamed that I?ve grown so numb Somehow I became desensitized I don?t want to be desensitized Justify the reasons why I stare through my calloused eyes I?m hollowed out, spiraled down Slave to my own demise I?m growing numb

But what is wrong and what is right
When did I start to lose this fight?
Somehow I lost track of who you are
I?m so amazed at what sin?s become
I?m so ashamed that I?ve grown so numb
Somehow I became desensitized
I don?t want to be desensitized
So what is wrong and what is right
When did I start to lose this fight?
Somehow I lost track of who you are
I?m so amazed at what sin?s become
I?m so ashamed that I?ve grown so numb
Somehow I became desensitized
I don?t want to be desensitized
I don?t want to be desensitized
