Chris De Burgh

And I can't protect this anymore.
I can't reflect this light,
That you shine on me.
So I'm giving up, not giving in.
I'm selling out, not selling in.
Judge for what I've done not who I am.
So take your shot now, so take your swing.
Start a fight because you know you will win.
A perfect storm touches down in your head.
You think you've found where the bodies are buried,
But you could never dig them up.
This is forever.
So take your shot now, so take your swing.
Start a fight because you know you will win.
You can't expect me to forget.
This is forever. This is forever.
You can't expect me to just accept the lies you've said.
This is forever. This is forever.
I won't be here for you with forgiveness.
We can't recover.
So take your shot now, so take your swing.
Start a fight because you know you will win.
So take your shot now, so take your swing.
Start a fight because you know you will win
