

In These Streets

Chamillionaire

How could I ever wanna lose your love?
Why would I ever wanna lose your trust?
'Cause there ain't nothing in these streets for me
Oh no baby, babyHow could I ever wanna lose your love?
Why would I ever wanna lose your trust?
'Cause there ain't nothing in these streets for me
Oh no baby, babyI guess it's safe to say that you're my everything
'Cause when you're gone away I feel like everything
He's at the bottom of my list
'Cause all I wanna do is taste your lips on my lipsAnd ain't no way I'm giving this love to nobody else
'Cause they ain't worth it
And what we got ain't far from perfect
'Cause we got ours and they still searching baby, yeahHow could I ever wanna lose your love? No, no
Why would I ever wanna lose your trust?
'Cause there ain't nothing in these streets for me
Oh no baby, babyHow could I ever wanna lose your love? No
Why would I ever wanna lose your trust? Hey, hey
'Cause there ain't nothing in these streets for me
Oh no baby, babyNow I can say it over and over again
I'm yours and I ain't going nowhere
And I know that ain't nobody out there
Better for me than youAin't no way giving this love to nobody else
'Cause they ain't worth it
What we got ain't far from perfect
'Cause we got ours and they still searchingHow could I ever wanna lose your love?
Why would I ever wanna lose your trust?
'Cause there ain't nothing in these streets for me
Oh no, baby, babyHow could I ever wanna lose your love?
Why would I ever wanna lose your trust?
'Cause there ain't nothing in these streets for me
Oh no, baby, babyHey, let's go
There ain't nothing in these streets for me baby, baby
Hey, baby, baby, heyHow could I ever wanna lose your love?
(Ain't nobody loving you like I do)
Why would I ever wanna lose your trust?
(And ain't nobody loving me like you)
'Cause there ain't nothing in these streets for me
Oh no baby, babyHow could I ever wanna lose your love?
(I don't see nothing out there)

Why would I ever wanna lose your trust?
( 'Cause I got everything, everything right here)
'Cause there ain't nothing in these streets for me
Oh no baby, baby
(And you keep taking me higher)That's my baby, yeah
Say that's my baby
That's my ooh, ooh
That's my baby, y'all my baby, y'all my baby, hey, hey
