I Think Too Much

Kristy Lee Cook

Yeah, yeah, yeahWhen he asked me out for dinner
Did I say yes too fast?
Does this dress look to churchy?
Is this red lipstick too white-trash?Should I just get a salad
Or go on and get a steak?
Will he think I'm too expensive
Or too worried 'bout my weight?Sometimes I wish I could tell my brain to just shut up
Because I know the more I think
I think I think too much
Yeah, I think I think too muchCan I see this 'goin somewhere?
Is he the kind that can't commit?
Would my mom and daddy like him?
Would we make good looking kids?Should I ask him in for a minute
Or just kiss him on the cheek?
Is he too sweet, too smart, will he break my heart?
Oh, what's wrong with me?Sometimes I wish I could tell my brain to just shut up
Because I know the more I think
I think I think too much
Yeah, I think I think too muchShould I call him up in the morning
Or wait on him and take it slow?
Yeah, I think I really like him
But there's just one thing I know
I think too much, I think, I think soSometimes I wish I could tell my brain to just shut up
Because I know the more I think
I think I think too muchSometimes I wish I could tell my brain to just shut up
Because I know the more I think
I think I think too much
Yeah, I think I think too muchYeah, I think, I think
I think, I think, I think
I think too much
