

Just Friends

The Kinks

Please step inside,
Just for a while.
I want to befriend you,
And just make you smile.

You've nothing to lose,
I've nothing to gain.
I shall not molest you,
I shan't break your brain.

Friends we'll become,
Friends we will stay.
Friends till forever,
Or just today.

Please don't deceive,
Please don't pretend.
Just be my companion,
And friend till the end.
