Enter the Unapproachables

Good Riddance

You don speak not a single word
Can correlate a single thing youe heard
You just erase all the things wee said
With a mask of disapprovalAnd it always about you
Convinced yourself there better things to do
Like building a wallYou double up at the thought of fun
Youe not concerned about anyone
Youe alone when the sun goes down
Like a cold, forsaken shadowAnd youe trapped inside yourself
Nothing can reach you
Nobody matters anyway
